

Quality Faculty

The Prefecture has long supported the excellence of Hanamaki North, sending the highest quality teachers to work at the school.

Our teachers devote great time and effort to supporting some of the most academically serious students in the Prefecture.

Rich Club Experience

Deeply valuing learning and development outside the classroom, Hanamaki North offers a large variety of both sports (baseball, soccer, basketball, archery and more) and cultural clubs (Composition, English, Broadcasting, photography and more).

“Black Bridge” Mindset

A motto of the school indicating strength of mind, based off a sturdy old bridge the original school campus was built on that is standing strong to this very day.

Diverse Cultural Events

Hanamaki North takes the cultural expression and education seriously, including:

- Annual cultural field trips
- A second-year trip through the historical heart of Japan.
- A deeply thought out school-wide culture festival open to the public.
- Courses all students take in either calligraphy, music or art

Consistent Reputation

Both locally and across the prefecture, Hanamaki North has had the highest of reputations for over 90 years, including having:

- Unique 60 minute lessons
- Serious students who work hard

“Oh-Ewn-Dai” Spirit Spirit of Challenge

Oh-Ewn-Dai (おうんだい), the name of the new school campus, harkening the vision of the school to develop students to strive courageously for great goals.

Active Education

All students at Hanamaki North are not only encouraged in daily lessons to be active, but also all complete a HAct (Hanakita Action) project during their time at Hanamaki North, large-scale small group research projects which include practical community action.

Unique Student Development Opportunities

In addition to dynamically empowering Hanamaki North's Student Council to plan events, the school regularly invites nationally-acclaimed lecturers to address students.

Strong Sister School Ties

Our Strong relationship with our sister school in America, ASMSA, allows for rich opportunities for intercultural interaction, broadening students' minds to the world.

Visiting Hanamaki North

Outside the Culture Festival, which is generally open to the public, please contact the school and ask to speak to an English teacher who can look into arranging a visit for you. If you don't get a response from the email listed on page 1 of this pamphlet, try calling the school and asking for an English teacher ("sumimasen, Nihongo hanasemasen. Eigo no sensei ga irashaimasenka?" (which means, "I'm sorry, I don't speak Japanese. Is there an English teacher I could talk to?"))

Applying to Hanamaki North

If you are looking to apply to Hanamaki North, please contact the school and consult with one of the school's English teachers via the methods described above under "Visiting Hanamaki North."
